TIES THAT MATTER

BIGI CRAVATTE
MILANO

Neckties may have taken a backseat in men's fashion for now, but Bigi reminds us why a sharp necktie makes the well-dressed man. Although members of the brand's third generation continue to produce every necktie by hand, just as their grandfather did beginning in 1938, they imbue their designs, $165 each, with a modern sensibility thanks to a mix of contemporary prints and materials. bigicravatte.it
